CMRP Certification

Certified Materials & Resource Professional Certification

Invest in your future by earning the Certified Materials & Resource Professional (CMRP) professional designation. Nationally recognized, CMRP is a leading credential based on sound assessment that provides distinction in a competitive marketplace. CMRP status delivers both internal and external rewards. It signifies a commitment to career advancement while representing accomplishment and expertise within the health care supply chain community. CMRP is designed and administered by the American Hospital Association Certification Center (AHA-CC).

Philanthropy through MAHRMM – Spring 2019

- Thank you for participating in the Food Drive for the Jackson Community Food Bank
- The Jackson Community Food Bank provides food to those in the Jackson Michigan area that have been impacted by financial problems as a result of: unemployment, divorce, disability, health, domestic violence, homelessness, disaster, aging and rising cost of living. We serve and seek to collaborate with those who share our mission. We serve 800+ families each month, solely run by volunteers.
- Food Distribution – Every Wednesday from 4:00 to 6:00 PM
- For more information visit <http://jcfoods.org>
- Fill out cards for kids for Blessings in a Backpack

Philanthropy through MAHRMM – Fall 2019

- Featured Organization is Blessings in a Backpack
- Blessings in a Backpack mobilizes communities, individuals and resources to provide food on the weekends for elementary school children across America who might otherwise go hungry.
- To ensure the kids in your community have full bellies over the weekend, Blessings in a Backpack sends them home on Fridays with backpacks full of satisfying and nutritional food
- Focuses on local communities
- We could be nurturing future supply chain professionals!
