

2019 Spring Conference

May 30, 2019

Henry Ford Allegiance, Jackson MI

The Charles Anderson Bldg Auditorium, Rooms A/B

7:30 – 8:45 am	Registration, Continental Breakfast, Networking
8:45 – 9:00	Welcome &amp; Opening Remarks Ed Hisscock, MAHRMM President, Senior Vice President Supply Chain, Trinity Health
9:00 – 10:00	Active Shooter Preparedness: Transforming the Conventional Thinking from a Security Plan to Everyone's Responsibility Jamie Crouch, MHA, MS/AJS, Life Safety Surveyor - The Joint Commission Learning Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Gain insight to the statistics centered around active shooter incident in recent history</li><li>• Understand the different types of response plans</li><li>• Once a plan is developed, defining the next steps</li><li>• Understand how to sustain staff responsibility</li></ul>
10:00 – 10:15	Platinum Sponsor Presentation – Attainia, Inc
10:15 – 10:30	Break
10:30 – 12:00	Disaster Preparedness Programs in Michigan: Community and State Coordination Don Edwards, DO, FACEP/FACOEP, Regional Medical Director for Michigan's Emergency Preparedness Program with Heath Care Coalition, Chair of State Emergency Medical Service Coordination Committee and EMS QA Task Force Amber Pitts, Manager Healthcare Preparedness Program, MDHHS/DEPR Lieutenant Jeffrey Yonkers, MSP, Region 1 Coordinator MSP Emergency Management and Homeland Security Division Learning Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• List two emergency preparedness resource tools that your facility can utilize to be prepared for a public health emergency</li><li>• Identify key components that need to be added to your facilities disaster plan to be compliant with both federal and state regulations</li><li>• Explain how your facility can collaborate with available community resources to enhance your facility disaster preparedness competency levels</li><li>• Identify two effects a healthy emergency can have on a facility with limited resources</li></ul>
12:00 – 1:00 - pm	Networking Lunch
1:00 – 2:00	Active Shooter Incidents: How Supply Chain Can Support a Culture of Safety and Preparedness Dennis Fitzpatrick, Facilitator, Safety and Security Manager, McLaren Lapper Rob Couturier, Lockout USA Morris Cotton, CPP, MLS, Sr. System Director of Security, Beaumont Health Jason Little, MBA, Regional Administrative Director Supply Chain, Trinity Health Illinois – Chicago Region Mary Masson, Director of Public Relations, Michigan Medicine Learning Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Learn how supply chain can plan to prepare and support in an active shooter event</li><li>• Increase knowledge on appropriate internal communication within your organization as well as external to the community</li><li>• Develop understanding of staff roles and responsibilities in maintaining a secure environment and in response to an active shooter incident</li><li>• Increase understanding of safe zones and secure areas within your facility</li></ul>
2:00 – 2:15	Break
2:15 – 3:15	Disaster Preparedness Local Event: Provider Perspective Cristy Rankin, RN, AEMT, PEM, Administrative Director of the Emergency Management program, Beaumont Health Learning objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Gain a general understanding of the scope of requirements and responsibilities of a healthcare emergency management program</li><li>• Obtain insight from lessons learned during several real-world events impacting Beaumont facilities</li><li>• Learn about several Beaumont disaster planning initiatives currently in progress</li></ul>
3:15 pm	Adjourn